JUDGE TARRIN'S GREAT SPEECH

soon have him elected as to have Mr. McKinley.

"The Organized Wealth of the land, realizing the danger impending over it in 1900, and fearing the result of a contest in that year on the lines as laid down in 1896, is seeking to save itself by diverting the attention of the people from the real issue, and by securing a departure by the Democracy from the lines laid down in 1896, and to that end you have men calling themselves Democrats, going about to-day, declaring for a platform broad enough for all Democrats to stand upon, and you have men calling themselves Democrats, declaring that we should omit the plank favoring independent bimetalism at 10 to 1, in the platform of 1900; and you find the political boss of New York city undertaking to dictate to the same end, the platform of 1900, and offering to support the Democratic party if it will surrender the Democracy, and offering to support Mr. Bryan if he will only give up that for which he contended in 1896.

NO ALLIANCES.
"In my judgment the Democracy of this nation should enter into no alliance with those in control of the Democratic organization in New York city. You can get the aid of those people by purchase, and by purchase only, and the consideration that you would have to pay would be, in the event of success at the polls, to carry on an administration hostile to all for which you contended in 1896, and hostile to all for which you expect to contend in 1900. In my judgment it would be better to go to defeat in 1900, without an alliance with those in control of the Democratic organization in New York, than to go to victory with such an alliance. New York may not be the enemy's country, but it is a country in possession of the enemy. The loyal and honest Democrats of New York State and New York city, who are in sympathy with the Democracy of the nation, and who are not in sympathy with the organization in New York, are now justified in a political revolution, and they ought to declare their independence of that State organization, form one of their own, and send their accredited delegates to the Democratic National Convention of 1900.

THE WORDS OF LINCOLN.
"Those who call themselves Republicans to-day ought to take well to heart the words of Abraham Lincoln: 'I see in the near future a crisis approaching that unnerves me and causes me to tremble for the safety of my country.' As a result of the war corporations have been entrenched, and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people, until all wealth is aggregated in a few hands, and the Republic is destroyed. I feel at this moment more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of war."

"I suggest to those who call themselves Republicans, to compare those words with the words of Senator Hanna, the words of the Secretary of War, Mr. Alger, and the course of the nominal President, Mr. McKinley. I am not one of those who believe in denouncing President McKinley. I don't think he is to blame. I don't think he could help it. I don't believe he ever caused anything to happen since he was born.

A CONTRAST.
Contrast Lincoln with McKinley. Remember the lives that were lost, the blood that was shed, and property that was destroyed, to bring freedom to the helpless, harmless Filipinos have been shot to death by this administration in a few months' time more were killed by the Spaniards in three hundred years, and then imagine what Abraham Lincoln would have done had he been conducting this administration. These Filipinos have never harmed this country; they have never harmed or attempted to harm a single citizen of this government; and in the face of that there can be no reason and no excuse in the heart or mind of any honest man for their murder. The proposition that this government has bought them at two dollars a head, does not justify their killing. We do not criticize nor do we denounce the soldiers; their duty is to obey orders and they are not responsible. We honor their heroic deeds, and then turn their courageous dead. Those who are responsible are in no position of danger, nor will they be. The bullet has never yet been made to go out of the mouth of the gun that can travel fast enough to catch up with the rear parts of a Hanna, or an Alger.

OUR LEADERS.
"I know that it was declared by those who opposed us in 1896 that the gold standard advocates own all the intelligence and all the knowledge of the country, and that we were too ignorant and too stupid to understand that which was best for our welfare, and that we ought to leave these matters to the gold standard people, whose only desire on earth was to benefit somebody else at their own expense. But it seems to us, in our feeble, anarchistic way of thinking, that if there is anything in this government too big for the average lawyer or doctor, or farmer or laborer, or merchant or manufacturer to understand, that thing is too big for this government, and ought to be out of it. If our gold standard brethren have monopolized all the intelligence and knowledge, as well as the money, they ought not to abuse us, but ought to look upon us with sympathy and listen to us with forbearance. Of course, we cannot hope to think with the intellect of a gold standard man, but it does seem to me, with all the certainty possible to the feeble mind accorded by the gold standard man to the Democrat anarchist, that William Jennings Bryan, George Fred Williams and Charles I. Towne are the finest specimens to be found, of the

DYSPEPSIA

"My wife suffered for many years from Nervous Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Sleeplessness and Nervous Debility," writes John Kelloes, Philadelphia. "We tried many physicians and numerous remedies, but with no result, until I heard of Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. We bought six boxes, and the results far surpassed our expectations. She now eats and sleeps well, is gaining in flesh, and her color, which had been yellow and sickly, is now as fresh as when we were first married, and I tell her that Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure has made her ten years younger."

THE HUB.

When we put "Admiral" Serge Suits

On the market at $9.75 we did what has never before been done. We made it possible for you to buy a suit of one of the very best qualities of Serge—equal to the made-to-measure suits at $25—for less than ten dollars.

And we have secured a signal success! From the very start it has been popular. We not only told you that it wouldn't fade, but we backed that statement up by saying that we would give a new suit for any that did so. There hasn't yet been an instance where "Admiral Serge" faded, but the guarantee makes you feel safer.

As we said above, tailor made-to-measure suits do not fit you better—do not wear longer than these. The greatest care was taken in the making. The collars are hand felled and hand padded and the lapels and shoulders are hand padded, too, and thus they cannot get out of shape through ordinary wear.

Other Clothiers are Getting $12.50 For Suits of Equal Worth.

Hence it is a great deal of satisfaction for "THE HUB" to be able to offer them for $9.75—in single or double-breasted styles—lined as you wish them.

A Hat Sale To Open the Season.

More than 600 Men's Rough and Ready Straw Hats go on sale to-day—the same Hats which the other stores about town are selling at $1.75 and $2.00, for youth, vigor, eloquence and brain of American citizenship. If the gold standard brethren can furnish a higher class than these represented, then I have failed to fully appreciate or to fully understand the possibilities of American development."

THE BANQUET.

Louisville, Ky., June 1.—The banquet of the Young Men's Democratic Club, given last night in honor of Judge Jas. P. Tarrin, did not come to an end until nearly 3 o'clock this morning. The toasts were not reached until after midnight and the 300 guests would apparently have been willing to remain until daylight had not W. J. Bryan's departure on a 3 o'clock train compelled an adjournment.

CIVIL SERVICE ORDER.

TREASURER GAGE EXPLAINS PRESIDENT'S RECENT ORDER.
(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, May 31.—Secretary Gage, in commenting to-day on the President's recent Civil Service order, said: "The President has not made a change in the Civil Service rules that was not urged by the head of the Department concerned, and urged with satisfying reasons why the change would be beneficial to the transaction of public business."

"The only large class of places in the Treasury service which have been exempted are the deputy collectors of Internal Revenue, and politics has had nothing to do with that exemption. I have given that question the most careful study, and I do not believe it was either lawful or just to have the places of deputy collectors of Internal Revenue included in the classified service. "Deputy collectors of Internal Revenue are not appointed by the head of the Treasury Department, and are not directly amenable to him. They differ practically from all other employees in any way connected with this department. The law authorizing the appointment of deputy collectors of Internal Revenue gives the power of appointment to the collectors. The deputies are responsible to the collectors only, and not to the general Government. The responsibility to the Government is through the collector, a responsibility for which the deputy must give bonds to the collector. The collectors are responsible for the actions of these deputies, both to the public and to the Government, and Congress recognizing that fact gave to the collectors the appointing power. I believe these reasons leave no room for discussion as to the propriety of excepting these places from the classified service."

Another class of exceptions has been the private secretaries to certain bureau heads. The list is not a long one, and it is not the character of place which will be opened to political pressure. A man should be free to choose his confidential secretary, for in no connection does the personal equation, which is quite unmeasurable by the civil service commission, have greater weight."

"It should be noted that in the case of nearly all these excepted places, with the exception of private secretaries, it is provided that the person appointed must successfully pass an examination equivalent to the one held by the commission for positions of a like character. There is no letting down in the requirements for ascertained fitness and in my opinion there will be no deterioration in the qualifications of people appointed.

"I do not regard the changes in any sense a step backward. The inclusive order of President Cleveland, bringing as it did, every place to which appointment was made by the Secretary of the Treasury into the classified service, with the exception of his private secretary and stenographer, was too broad. The decision to take out some of these places has not been hasty."

ANTI-STRIKE BILL.

THE REICHSTAG RECEIVES ONE FOR CONSIDERATION.
(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Berlin, June 1.—The Reichstag, contrary to expectations, received the anti-strike bill to-day. The provisions of the bill are now less stringent than the Emperor at first intended.

The measure provides that whoever threatens to forcibly prevent persons from going to work will be sentenced to a maximum of a year's imprisonment. Where there are extenuating circumstances a fine of 1,000 marks will be imposed.

The same punishment will be meted out to those who threaten a boycott to compel employers or employees to desist from work, or who, during a lockout, try to force employers or employees to yield to their demands, or who threaten to maltreat or otherwise molest non-strikers.

The bill is not likely to pass before the adjournment of the Reichstag, and it is not likely to pass at all in its present shape.

DICTATORSHIP.

PREMIER SILVELA OF SPAIN TALKS ABOUT ONE.
(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Madrid, June 1.—Premier Silvela, addressed a meeting of the majority of Senators and Deputies to-day, and urged the necessity of radical reforms which he believed could be realized without recourse to a dictatorship.

In the course of his remarks the Premier said that if his program for rehabilitation failed the country would fall into a dictatorship, which, he added, would be productive of the greatest evils.

Lawton and McArthur Assigned.
(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Manila, June 1.—5:05 p. m.—General Lawton has been given command of the defenses of the city and troops forming the line around Manila, which will be his division. General MacArthur commands the outlying garrisons and the troops holding the railroad and river.
